Each of the additional sales/use tax levies are only applicable within their specific district and applies to the sale at retail, the use, the lease or rental, the consumption, and the storage for use or consumption, of tangible personal property and on sales of services in these EDDs, all as defined by law. The tax will be filed in Columns (O-S) on the Lafayette Parish Sales/Use tax return.

Each additional occupancy tax is only applicable within its specific district and applies to the rent or fee charged for the occupancy of hotel rooms as defined by law.

Again, the tax will be effective beginning July 1, 2020. Taxpayers should contact this office if there are any questions.
