IMPORTANT NOTICE

EFFECTIVE October 1, 2020

On August 15, 2020, qualified voters of the City of Marksville approved a 1% Sales and Use Tax applicable within the City of Marksville. This new tax rate becomes effective on October 1, 2020, making the City of Marksville rate increase by 1%.

The new breakdown for the City of Marksville tax rate in Avoyelles Parish is indicated below:

Column B:

City / Town	School Board	Police Jury	Law Enforcement	Combined Local Rate
2.00%	1.75%	1.00%	0.50%	5.25%

The above rate is Local Sales and Use Tax ONLY and does not reflect the sales and use taxes levied by the State of Louisiana.

Your new tax form will be modified to provide for reporting the revised tax rate. Until then, you can continue to use the old forms you have on hand, just make the necessary adjustment in Column B by changing it from 4.25% to 5.25%.

This department will continue to administer all local sales tax within Avoyelles. Dealers who are presently registered with the Parish of Avoyelles Sales and Use Tax Department will continue to use their present registration number and report all sales and use taxes levied in Avoyelles Parish on one consolidated form.

Please use the proper column when reporting your taxes on this form.
